Following last minute decisions and conferences with Marilyn G. Longworth, Pageant Director, Bridget Hoffman, Miss Grayling, is shown with her mother, Mrs. Ralph Hoffman, checking over clothing details.

Bridget, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman, left on Monday with Mrs. Longworth for a week of rehearsals and appearances in Muskegon where the Miss Michigan Scholarship Pageant will climax on Saturday night.

Theme of this year's pageant is "Nostalgia" — Grayling has its own nostalgia since Bridget's mother, the former Nancy Cox, was Miss Grayling 1947.

Ann Haskel, Miss Grayling 1973, has also been assisting Bridget with pageant orientation.

Mark Hanson Recognition Dinner

Tickets are still available for the recognition-benefit dinner for Mark D. Hanson on Friday evening, June 20th, at the American Legion Hall starting at 6:00 p.m.

Mark, the son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. David "Skip" Hanson, of Grayling, has received an appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point, and will report there on July 7th to begin his cadet training in the army.

Bruce Benson, local attorney, will serve as master of ceremonies, with Senator Robert Davis of Gaylord, the main speaker of the evening.

The dinner is being sponsored by the American Legion Post 106 and Auxiliary, with the proceeds going to Mark. Price of the ham dinner is $3.75 per person, and tickets are available at Mac's Drug Store, the Legion Hall, or from Harold "Tike" Golnick and Jack Mead.

County Historical Society Plans Membership Drive

The Crawford County Historical Society, at its June meeting, set plans for a membership drive between now and September 1st, as well as plans for a float for the summer parades, possible fund-raising ideas, and also discussed ways in which historical displays could be placed in the Frederic area and Lovell's Area.

Representatives from Frederic and Lovell are being sought for membership on the Board, which includes: Sal Truettner, President; Helen Moon, Vice-President; Betty Failing, Secretary-Treasurer; Elmer Fenton, Curator; Chuck Kolb and other interested persons. Anyone who is interested should plan to attend the next monthly meeting which will be held on Monday, July 14th, at 8:00 p.m., at the Historical Building.

Membership goal for this year is 500 with memberships as follows:

Life Membership	$100
Supporting Membership	25 yr.
Family Membership	15 yr.
Individual Membership	5 yr.
Student Membership	2 yr.

Elmer Fenton will be in charge on contacting local business persons, however, the Society would appreciate interested persons sending in the form below with their check made out to Crawford County Historical Society.

Summer Playgrounds, Swimming And Classes Begin Monday

The 1975 Summer Recreation and Enrichment Program sponsored by the Crawford AuSable Community School Program will get underway at 9:00 a.m. Monday morning with the opening of Playgrounds at the Grayling Middle School and the Frederic Elementary School. All children who plan to participate in the Summer Playground Program should plan to be on hand at that time to register and to get their schedule of planned activities for the summer. There is no charge for the playground program, however those students who plan to take part in the arts and crafts program are requested to pay a fee of $4.00 which will help defray the cost of materials used in the activities. Those who plan to register for the Arts & Crafts Program should be on hand at the playground Monday morning to complete that registration.

Also beginning Monday morning will be the Summer Swimming Program and the new Summer Enrichment Program for area youth. Students who have registered for these classes have already received their class schedules in the mail and will be attending classes beginning at 9:00 a.m. Monday morning. Classes offered include beginning and intermediate tennis, gymnastics, kids theatre, math and nature courses.

Also beginning on Monday, will be our first summer offering of Adult Enrichment Classes. Adults may select from a slate of classes which includes: oil painting, china painting, chair caning, outdoor cooking, tennis, volleyball and gymnastics. Registration for these classes can be completed at the first class session. More information on the Community School Summer Program can be obtained by calling the Community School Office at 348-7641. The Community School Office is located in the Grayling High School north of town on old U.S. 27 and is open daily.

Penny Winslow To Tour Mexico

Penny Winslow, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winslow of Grayling, will be leaving for seven weeks of study and sight-seeing in Mexico this summer. She is going through the summer in Mexico Program sponsored by the Wisconsin-Michigan Language Centers Abroad. This privately financed program is for those students who have taken Spanish classes in high school and have proper recommendations from their Spanish teacher and their counselor.

Penny will be leaving Rockford, Illinois, with thirty-eight other students, on a bus on June 24th. They will make stops at San Antonio, Texas; Monterey and Mexico City, Mexico for sightseeing. Then on to Guadalajara for five weeks of study at the University of Guadalajara. During this time the students will be living with various Mexican families learning their customs and ways of life. She will be returning to Grayling on August 12th.

Fire Department Has Kept Busy

The Grayling Volunteer Fire Department answered four fire calls in four days, from Thursday through Sunday.

On June 12th at 8:25 p.m., the firemen were called to Tarpon Industries on M-72 east, to extinguish a slab wood fire.

Friday, June 13th at 12:59 p.m., the department answered a call to the Dinner Bell Inn on I-75 Business Loop, North, where minor damage was caused by wiring fault, according to Fire Chief, Joe White.

On Saturday evening, June 14th, at 7:22, the volunteers were called to the north end of the Grayling Airport when an Army tank caught on fire.

At 11:15 a.m. Sunday, June 15th, the firemen responded to a call to the Ken Minard home in Lovells. By the time we got there, the home was pretty well gutted, Chief White said.

WARNING

Annual Training will be conducted by units of the Michigan and Ohio Army National Guard during the period 18 thru 29 June 1975. The various ranges located at Camp Grayling will be utilized during this period. These ranges will be closed during the above dates and all persons are warned to stay out of these areas.

For 2 Week Summer Encampment

Michigan-Ohio Guard Join Forces

[Special to the Avalanche] Elements of the Michigan and Ohio Army National Guard moved into Camp Grayling over the weekend to begin a 2 week training period. Coming from as far away as Marquette in the Upper Peninsula and Columbus, Ohio to the south. The major commands represented in camp for this period include the 54th Support Center (Rear Area Operations) of the Ohio Army National Guard, commanded by MG Charles H. Jones; the 46th Engineer Group, of the Michigan Army National Guard, commanded by Col. Arthur N. Phillips; and a Task Force from Michigan Army National Guard Headquarters, commanded by Col. C.E. Lamoreaux. In all, over 6000 troops will be in camp for the period.

Unusual with the Ohio Guard, is the visitation of the 107th Armored Cavalry Regiment, which after an absence of two years is returning to Camp Grayling. This unit will be concentrating upon unit and individual training, making full use of the facilities of the camp and ATEP, including tank and armored tracked vehicles and the self-propelled guns.

In the welcoming comments made by MG Charles H. Jones, commander of the Ohio contingent, he indicated that the units were happy to again be the guests of the citizens of Michigan and the Michigan Army National Guard. He further indicated that high praise is to be made for the way the Ohio units have been treated during their arrival and the outstanding manner in which the Camp Grayling staff has cooperated in getting the training period off to an excellent start. MG Jones indicated that there were few [See Encampment on page 12]

Cecil Benson Eagles No. 4

While playing golf with her husband and the Charles Ficks on Monday night, Cecil Benson scored an Eagle on number 4 hole at the Grayling Country Club.

Her drive took her to the right rough, but a shot with a 3 iron took her to 140 yards away from the pin and a 6 iron dropped it in.

While looking for the ball behind the green someone suggested looking in the hole and there it was!

Marine Safety To Receive $9,462.03

According to an announcement by State Representative Ralph Ostling (R-Roscommon) Section 23 of Act 303, Public Acts of 1967, authorizes the Department of Natural Resources to reimburse the several counties of the state in an amount equal to two-thirds of the authorized and approved expenditures of their marine safety programs, less any necessary prorations. The county programs are conducted on a calendar year basis and reimbursement is made prior to July 1 of the following year.

The following counties in the 103rd district will be receiving reimbursement: Crawford County - $9,462.03; Clare County - $3,243.36.

The warrants will be mailed to the county treasurers, or other county official as may have been designated by the individual county, in approximately two weeks, Mr. Ostling concluded.

107th Armored Cavalry From Ohio In Training Here

[Special to the Avalanche] Members of the 107th Armored Cavalry, located in northeastern Ohio, are training at Camp Grayling, with support from the 54th Support Center, Rear Area Operations Command from the General Robert S. Beighler Armory in Worthington, Ohio.

The 74 members of the 54th Support Center are assigned to assist the 107th Armored Cavalry, along with the 211th Maintenance Company in Newark, 684th Medical Company in Westerville, 299th Signal Platoon from Kettering, and the 1485th Transportation Company of Covington.

The 2,418 men and women of the 107th Armored Cavalry are from Cleveland, Greensburg, Ashtabula, Painesville, Chagrin Falls, Canton, Massillon, Stow, Barberton, Youngstown, Wooster and Ravenna.

During the two weeks at Camp Grayling, the 107th will be conducting squad, platoon and company training. The training will focus on tank gunnery, scout and demolition [See Armored on page 12]

Senior Citizens To Tour Scandinavia

There are a great number of people living in the Grayling area who are of Scandinavian descent, and for those people and their friends there is a wonderful opportunity to visit the lands of their ancestors.

On September 4th, the Grayling Travel Club, sponsored by the Senior Citizen Center, will leave Detroit and spend 14 days touring Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland. Eric The Red will come to life as you walk down winding streets dotted with canals or motor through sleepy valleys and on up through gorgeous ski country in the mountains. You can walk the decks of old Viking ships, explore marvelous shops and restaurants and behold wonderful sights and sounds.

The full price for this fabulous trip is entirely dependent upon how many people sign up, but we must make final arrangements by this Friday, June 20th and have $100.00 deposit from everyone who wants to go. Why wait and then, when it is too late, wish you had taken advantage. Call the Senior Center today and make your reservation for this wonderful holiday. Call 348-9314.

NURSES TO MEET

District Nurse's Association will hold their annual meeting on Monday evening, June 23rd at 7:00 p.m. Potluck dinner will be held at the home of Frela Beck, 107 Fairview, Brookside Acres, Roscommon.

Bring a dish to pass and your table service. All R.N.'s are invited.

REALTORS MEET IN GRAYLING—The June meeting of the Water Wonderland Board of Realtors was held at the Holiday Inn in Grayling, Thursday evening, June 12th. Roland Ledebuhr, the guest speaker for the evening, spoke on the subject of real estate law and the recent changes to the law. The Water Wonderland Board is comprised of Realtors from Cheboygan, Crawford and Otsego Counties. Shown from left: Wayne Everett of Lake City, District Vice President, Art Weideman of Grayling, Vice President of Water Wonderland Board of Realtors, and Roland Ledebuhr of Lansing, 1st Vice President of the Michigan Association of Realtors.

Collecting Used Books

The Roscommon Area Branch of the American Association of University Women are now collecting used books in preparation for their Used Book Sale to be held in August.

All types of books are needed: textbooks, children's books, novels, cookbooks and pocket-books. National Geographics will be the only magazines collected. Children's games and puzzles, sheet music and records will also be accepted. Book sale chairman is Mrs. Larry Sumerix.

Accepting books will be: Roscommon, Houghton Lake, Higgins Lake, West Branch and in Grayling - Mrs. Ruth Gruitch at 348-9566.

The proceeds from the used book sale are used for the National Fellowships program for AAUW which makes scholarship money available for women to pursue research and work beyond their doctor's degree.

O.E.S. Honors Williamson

The evening of June 3, 1975 will long be remembered by the officers and other members of Grayling Chapter #83, OES when a reception and dinner were given honoring Mr. Olin E. Williamson, past patron, and the Barton-Hayes Grand Family of the Grand Chapter of Michigan. His appointment as chairman of the Masonic Relations Com. was made by Mrs. Marjorie Barton, Worthy Grand Matron, and Mr. Robt. Hayes, Worthy Grand Patron. He is serving as the chief liaison officer between the Grand Chapter of Michigan OES, and the Grand Lodge of Michigan, Free & Accepted Masons, in behalf of the residents at the Masonic Home in Alma.

Guests arriving at the Masonic Temple were welcomed by Mr. Robt. Houghton, worthy Patron, and Mrs. Betty Madsen, worthy matron. Here they signed the guest register and enjoyed a social hour. The punch table, with its trays of tasty and attractive assortment of hors d'oeuvres beckoned them back many times.

From here, they proceeded to the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church for a 6:30 banquet. This bounteous and delicious meal was prepared by the ladies of the Women's Society and deftly served by the men of the church. The invocation was given by Mrs. Helen Baker, Grand Chaplain.

From the church, the guests again assembled at the Masonic Temple for the entertainment planned for their pleasure and enjoyment. Under the direction of Mr. Howard Taylor of the Crawford AuSable School Dist. the hand bell ringers gave an outstanding performance. Between numbers, Mr. Taylor gave a brief history of the origin of hand bell ringing. Mrs. June Feldhauser followed this group with a lovely solo by Rodgers and Hammerstein, "June is Busting Out All Over." A group of young ladies called the "Traverse City Highlanders" were next on the program. Their Scottish interpretative dances were beautifully executed, and well received. Their director, Mrs. Donald Kusch, was also proud of them as this was their first public engagement! Dr. Robt. Marple of Mt. Pleasant is a man of many titles; in addition to that of Past Grand Patron of Michigan, he is Professor of geography at CMU, and also a popular after dinner speaker. It was in this latter capacity that he entertained the guests with his wit and humor under the heading of "Have You Heard This?" After a few presentations were made to Mr. Williamson, Mrs. Marjorie Barton sang the song written especially for her, "Marge's Melody." The program concluded with the benediction by Mrs. Lucille Koken. The Past Matron's Club of Grayling prepared and served the "afterglow" refreshments before the guests departed for their homes.

In addition to Mrs. Marjorie Barton, Worthy Grand Matron, and Mr. Robt. Hayes, Worthy Grand Patron, their grand officers and grand committee members, there were dignitaries present from General Grand Chapter: Mrs. Lucille Koken, Worthy Grand Chaplain; Mrs. Bernice Hiller, a member of the Public Relations Com. (Both Past Grand Matrons of Michigan); and Mr. Kenneth Wiseman, a member of the Unfinished Business Com., and a Past Grand Patron of Michigan. Other Past Grand Patrons present were Mr. John Scherf and Mr. Robt. Marple. From the Grand Lodge of Michigan, Free and Accepted Masons, was Mr. Vincent Vatter, Deputy Grand Master.

The hearts and hands of many members working tirelessly, made the evening the memorable success that it was. These committees worked under the able direction of Mrs. Elsie Jansen, general chairperson, and Mrs. Roberta Wright, co-chairperson and mistress of ceremonies for the evening. Special mention is made of the beautifully refinished floor in the dining room of the Masonic Temple, and for this all our Eastern Star members and the Masons owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Robt. Houghton and his helpers for this difficult and tedious job well done.

Gerald Poor: many legacies

EDITOR'S NOTE—The following editorial appeared in the Mt. Pleasant Daily Times-News Tuesday, May 20th. Dr. Poor was a former educator at Grayling High School, coming here in 1929 as a history teacher. He served as Principal during 1932-34, and Superintendent, 1934-40. We felt his many former students and friends in Grayling would want to read this tribute paid to him.

One of Mount Pleasant's most distinguished educators, Dr. Gerald Poor, died last weekend, but he left many legacies behind.

A man who cared a great deal about the past and future of the Mount Pleasant community, Dr. Poor was one of the foremost instructors at Central Michigan University.

His concern for the history and traditions of central Michigan was well known. He served on the Isabella Bicentennial Council and played an active role in thinking about how our heritage should be commemorated in 1976.

When the CMU Board of Trustees named a restored one-room schoolhouse, "The Gerald L. Poor School Museum," it made an appropriate choice, considering Dr. Poor's interest in the past of our community.

Besides this physical link to our past, Dr. Poor leaves an even greater legacy in the minds of his students.

A professor in the department of secondary education, Dr. Poor was twice honored with the university's Senior Thanks award. Until his retirement in 1973, he had taught at CMU for 30 years.

He had a long list of academic honors and was in demand as a visiting lecturer in many colleges. He was the author of one book and numerous professional articles.

Dr. Poor set a fine example of service, both to his university and his community.

This, too, will be his legacy.

Crawford County Commission on Aging sponsors a Telephone Reassurance Program, a Friendly Visitor Program, a Craft Program and a Health Clinic. Volunteers are needed now for each of these programs.

Someone is needed to make a daily telephone call to a lady, recently widowed. Could you make a telephone call each day to an elderly shut-in. This one telephone call daily gives many Crawford County Senior Citizens enough confidence to live alone. Without this telephone call we would probably be supporting some of these people in institutions. If you could make one telephone call daily please call the Senior Center at 348-9314. Leave your name, address and telephone number. We will call you back as soon as we need someone to call some lonely shut-in. (I am hopeful that we will be able to fill the need of the lady now and compile a list for future calls.)

A long list of persons await a Friendly Visitor. A couple who live at Grayling Mobile Estates; a widow, long time Crawford County resident, age 93; a man who lives in the city needs someone to visit him and let his wife go shopping; 3 lone men who live at Ausagra need men to visit them; a totally disabled lady needs a caller while her husband gets out of the house. Each of these persons are lonely and need a friend. Could you do a regular call on one lonely person? Would you like a new friend? These people and many more are quietly waiting. Will you help? Call 348-9314. We will arrange for you to meet your new friend. No person is assigned a friend without the consent of both people.

A Friendly Visitor program is also underway for the Frederic Area with Frederic people calling on lonely persons in that area. At this point six persons have volunteered to begin visiting there.

In the craft department we need quilters. We take quilts that belong to individuals and finish them for a fee. Money goes into Senior Center funds. You don't have to be a senior citizen. If you have time to volunteer and would like to learn to quilt or if you are already a quilter we will be glad to have your help. Call Genieve Hill at 348-3111, she has charge of our craft department. You could come any Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from nine to five and stay as long as you want. Handicraft volunteers are always in demand to make items to be sold at our bazaars. At this time dolls, plaques, and jewelry are in the making. Persons to volunteer making ceramics are also in demand. Here again you can learn while you volunteer.

Our Health Clinic is held each Thursday at the Senior Center — a free service to all Crawford County Senior Citizens. We need licensed practical nurses and registered nurses to volunteer for this service.

Completes Marine Training

Marine Private First Class Perry E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah E. Anderson of Grayling, has completed field skills training at the Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms, Calif.

The course includes instruction designed to prepare new Marines for duty in their military job assignment.

As a field artillery batteryman, Anderson learned about the tactical employment, maintenance and capabilities of long range support weapons.

A 1973 graduate of Grayling High School, he joined the Marine Corps in July 1974.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

From Calvary Baptist Church

SEX LAWS TO CHANGE?

A few weeks ago a 73-member Michigan Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice recommended drastic changes in Michigan laws dealing with sex offenses. They recommended that homosexuality and sodomy between consenting adults be permitted in Michigan by repealing some of our present laws which they branded as "archaic". Their philosophy of thinking is best described by their own words, "The private relations of citizens, even adulterous relations, are in the realm of private morality and should not be in the purview of the law."

All Bible Christians should disagree with these learned men. Any morality which destroys the home becomes a direct threat to the internal destruction of the nation. No government can long promote the general welfare of her people which has become passive toward the welfare of the home. The welfare of our homes today will determine the welfare of our nation tomorrow.

We can learn much from the civil laws God gave to the nation of Israel. Of the 18 crimes which were punishable by death, six of the 18 or one-third of those crimes involved sex. God taught us centuries before Sigmund Freud that sex has an important place in man's behavior within society. There is a direct connection between sexual deviance and civil disorder. Sexual deviance is often characterized in the Bible as an important step in social degeneration.

The six sex crimes punishable by death in Israel were: 1) Rape of a married woman, Deut 22:25-29; 2) Fornication, Deut 22:13-21; 3) Adultery, Deut 22:22-24; 4) Incest, Lev 20:11-12; 5) Homosexuality, Lev 20:13 and 6) sexual intercourse with an animal, Lev 20:15, 16. These six sex crimes along with three crimes involving improper conduct toward parents made up nine (9) or one-half (1/2) of the crimes punishable by death in Israel. There was nothing stressed more in these civil laws God gave Israel than sexual purity and respect for parents. Sexual purity and respect for parents are two basic essentials for a good home.

Now we are not writing this article to promote the death penalty for sex offenses. Murder is the only crime for which God has commanded the death penalty on a universal scale. The death penalty for other crimes mentioned in the Bible was only commanded by God for the nation of Israel. However, seeing the gravity of the punishment God inflicted upon Israel for sex sin should enlighten us to the importance of the presence and enforcement of civil laws against sex sin within our own state and nation. (adv.)

New V-P For Consumers

JACKSON, June 11—Consumers Power Company announced today the election of Jack W. Reynolds as vice president for personnel. Mr. Reynolds, 52, most recently has been corporate director of industrial relations for the B. F. Goodrich Company, based in Akron, Ohio.

He will assume his new position at Consumers Power on July 1, reporting to President John D. Selby. He fills the position vacated in March 1974 by the death of B. G. Campbell. "We are extremely pleased to have acquired the services of a proven executive of Mr. Reynolds' caliber," Mr. Selby said. "He has demonstrated record of management achievement in the full range of personnel and industrial activities."

Mr. Reynolds holds two bachelor's degrees from Oklahoma State University, one in physical science and another in industrial engineering and management. Following graduation, he joined B. F. Goodrich Company in 1947, and has spent his entire business career to date with that organization.

Bits O' Talk

by Fay Bovee

Mr. and Mrs. John Corr hosted a graduation party on Saturday afternoon and evening, June 10th, for her sons, Clare and Wayne LaChapelle. About 75 guests enjoyed refreshments in the tent set up in their side yard. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaChapelle and Cindy and John, from St. Johns, and Monica Stephan from New Orleans, La. Monica arrived Friday, June 6, and left for New Orleans on Tuesday, June 18.

The Larry McNamara family were hosts to an Open House and buffet supper in honor of their son, P. J., after Baccalaureate services on Sunday evening, May 31. About 100 people enjoyed the McNamara's hospitality. On June 8, the McNamaras attended a family graduation party at her sister's, Mr. and Mrs. William Switek in Pinconning. The Switek's son, Kevin, was also a graduate. Mike McNamara was home between quarters from Ferris State College but has returned and started summer school on June 12. Mary Liz McNamara returned to Grayling on Thursday, June 17, from Kalamazoo College to spend the summer with her parents.

Mrs. Helen Palmer, of Jackson, stopped in Grayling on Monday inquiring about the family's cemetery lots. She is the daughter of the late George Palmer who was a Judge of Probate sometime before 1919. She attended schools here prior to 1917.

Swimmer's Itch Season Is Approaching

By Willard Bosserman

County Extension Director
I will pass along some information about swimmer's itch that was compiled by researchers working on the water quality protection project at Houghton Lake.

Swimmer's Itch is caused by an immature form of parasitic flatworm, commonly called, blood flukes (cercariae). These immature flukes come from its snail host. When light and temperature conditions are suitable, they leave the snail host by bursting through the tissue and escaping into the water. The flukes locate a bird or mammal host by random swimming movements and penetrate its skin. If the host is a suitable species, the flukes quickly reach the circulatory system and mature into adult flukes, beginning the cycle anew.

If by chance the immature flukes penetrate the skin of an unsuitable host, like people, they will die, but their presence can cause an allergic response in susceptible individuals.

Within ten to fifteen hours after penetration, itching and skin eruptions occur at the penetration site. The degree of reaction varies with the sensitivity of the individual but it can be extremely uncomfortable, especially if secondary infection of erupted areas occur.

The article by the researchers didn't go into how to physically relieve swimmer's itch once you were affected however, I was able to get some information from the District Health Department located in Roscommon. My information is from an article written by Carlos Fetterolf, Aquatic Biologist and Lloyd Gouline, Beach Treatment Supervisor for the Department of Natural Resources.

They say after the flukes have penetrated there is little that can be done in the way of treatment. Some relief from itching may be obtained through the use of a soothing lotion, such as calamine. Cleanliness should be practiced to guard against bacterial infection.

The flukes (cercariae) are delicate little animals. They will dry up and die almost immediately when deprived of water around them. They will also be crushed when pressure is applied to them. We also know that they require a certain period of contact before penetration can be accomplished. Therefore, briskly rubbing the body dry with a towel immediately after emerging from the water is an effective means of minimizing penetration.

Cercariae may be concentrated by wind and wave action in the water along the shore. Children playing in these shallow areas for extended periods, running in and out of the water, are especially susceptible to attack. Persons standing in shallow water while constructing docks or cleaning a bathing area of rocks or weeds are also more liable to attack than the average swimmer. By swimming in deep water and toweling the skin dry immediately after leaving the water the chance of annoyance from swimmer's itch can be greatly reduced.

Researchers on the Houghton Lake Project were concerned about the effect the copper sulfate has on water quality. Copper sulfate is used to kill the snails.

James Novy reported nearly one million pounds of copper sulfate has been applied to Houghton Lake since 1944. Their studies did find some accumulation of copper in some of the bottom sediments but could find no apparent damage from the use of copper sulfate applications.

Homes Thru The Years

Area 16 Extension Homemakers will present their second annual home tour Sunday, June 29. Eight homes will be shown between the hours of twelve noon and 5:00 p.m.

A brief description of the homes follows:

The Yoder Home - Oldest of the eight homes, built between 1886-1890 for Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeWaele. Pleasant blend of modern and antique furnishings create a comfortable setting. Beautiful wood carved open staircase.

The Stuart Home - Apartment living not for you? Wait till you see this lovely one. You'll find it hard to believe you're not in a rambling ranch home. Very tastefully decorated.

The McCreery Home - On the banks of the South Branch of the AuSable River. A summer cottage that has grown over the years. A miniature art museum. Macrame and pottery lovers will be pleased.

The Venner Home - One of the newer homes on our tour; located in a beautiful setting along the AuSable River not far from Roscommon. This home has combined elegance with comfortable living. Many lovely pieces of furniture, good ideas for remodeling.

The Shigley Home - Beautiful Swiss Chalet with numerous glass sliding doors which open to decks overlooking Higgins Lake. Both upstairs bedrooms open onto small decks. Large stone fireplace and antique hutch accent living room.

The Westfall Home - Large two-story home built in 1926. Remodeled exterior with interior attractively modernized while retaining old charm. Sits on high bank of Higgins Lake.

The Dougherty Home - Very spacious country style home with living and kitchen areas looking out to the lake. Features two stone fireplaces, original stucco walls with high ceilings. Kitchen and family room completely redone by Doughertys. Built in 1925 and 1926 by Eloy Soderholm for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin.

The Frye Home - An old stone cottage that is a dream home inside. Very brightly and handsomely decorated. Delightful use of new and antique furnishings.

Tickets are $1.50 per person. The tour is open to everyone over 12 years of age. Tickets are available from extension members and should be purchased in advance. If you do not know an extension member call Colleen VanNuck at 348-7276 or Jeannette Millard at 348-8916.

Tourers will be able to get ideas for home decorating, furniture arrangement and landscaping from the variety of homes shown.

Light refreshments will be served at the Dougherty home. There will also be a display of the various functions and services of the Co-operative Extension Service.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Douglas James McKinnon would like to thank the folks in Crawford County who sent cards, called at our home, and prayed for his recovery. He is home now and doing quite well. Thanks to Dr. Dosch and Dr. Oppy and all the rest of Mercy Hospital who had a hand in saving our son, to Rochette's Party Store for their kindness and understanding during the past two weeks. May God bless each and every one of you as he has blessed us.

Very sincerely yours,
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harris

Grayling State Bank

A disaster preparedness briefing is scheduled to coincide with the Wurtsmith AFB Open House on Tuesday, June 24. More than three hundred key civilians in northeast Michigan who could play a part in assisting with an off-base aircraft accident have been invited to attend the seminar on disaster preparedness.

The Open House activities will begin at 10:30 a.m. when the base gates will be opened to the general public. There will be more than twelve different aircraft on public display along with food services booths and exhibits. The Wurtsmith AFB Security Police/Sentry Dog teams will put on several demonstrations during the day showing the unit's protective security provided by the "K-9" corps.

The famed USAF "Thunderbirds" will arrive at 11:00 a.m. and perform aerial maneuvers. The aerial demonstration team has the distinction of showing off the professional, versatility and flexibility of Air Force personnel and equipment. Currently the Thunderbirds fly the Northrop T-38 "Talon", a supersonic trainer which at one time held 12 world records, establishing it as one of the world's best performing aircraft. Although famous world wide for their aerial demonstrations, the Thunderbirds are a highly diversified, flexible Air Force squadron. Each Thunderbird must do his job to the highest of standards as well as present the U.S. Air Force to the public of the free world...truly America's "Ambassadors in Blue".

At 12:30 the Osceola High School band will perform in concert and at 1:30 there will be low level flights by a B-52 bomber and a KC-135 tanker from the 39th Bomb Wing.

The "Thunderbird" show will begin at 3:00 p.m. A retreat ceremony at 4:45 p.m. will round out the day's celebration and public gates are scheduled to close at 5:00 p.m.

All are cordially invited to this special Open House.

District Court

The following appeared in District Court last week before Judge Francis L. Walsh:

Coleman, Querry, Jr., 25, of Dayton, Ohio demanded preliminary examination on a charge of possession of explosives with intent to injure person or property of another and bond of $15,000.00 cash or surety was set. He was arrested on a citizen's complaint on June 3.

Roy Kenneth Phillips, 34, of Warren, demanded preliminary examination on charges of carrying a concealed weapon and possession of marijuana. Bond of $500.00 was set. City police were the arresting officers on May 24.

Demond Robert Stern, Jr., 26, of Richmond; Rory James Kauffman, 16, of Hazel Park; Robert Michael Lee, 23, of Madison Heights; Harvey Joseph Lee, 21, of Hazel Park; Christopher R. Behmlander, 19, of Bay City and Gary Edward Johnson, 21, of Grayling, all entered pleas of guilty to unlawful use of marijuana and were assessed fine and costs of $204.00 or 30 days in jail. Stern, Kauffman, H. Lee and H. Lee were arrested by officers from the Houghton Lake State Police Post on June 4; Behmlander by sheriff's officers on May 26 and Johnson by city police on April 12.

SPELL DOWN WINNERS—The annual second semester Fourth Grade spell down was held on June 11th. The room winners were awarded pins. These were presented to George Morse for Mr. Hayes' room, Kathi LaMotte for Mr. Brigham's room, Shelia Hodges for Mrs. Funk's room and Margaret Byce for Mrs. Akers' room. Margaret Byce was awarded a beautiful dictionary as she was the "spelling champ".

As one of her last official duties before her retirement, Mrs. Funk dictated the words to the spellers and made the presentations. It was later discovered that Mrs. Funk had pronounced 436 words before the winner was declared.

Worse Than the Disease

"It's fun to have my tonsils out now that I'm six years old, and since they're gone, the doctor says I'll never have a cold!" That was the sentiment on a get-well card from my kindergarten teacher. There's an operation to fix a deviated septum I luckily, at the time the sinus vacuumer told me about it, the less was out right. Because you know, in these nostalgic days, I just miss my tonsils so much. I've decided to hang onto my nose as is, with all its faults. Besides, I'm positive that as sure as I go in and have it undeviated, a medical research will discover my sort of septum to be superior...

Well, my appendix really did have to go. But have you noticed the changing attitude toward some common operations? It was almost a foregone conclusion in my day that a kid would lose his tonsils, but today you have to go far to find a doctor who will remove a pair. Inflamed tonsils simply meant sometimes that they were doing their job, and these days they're usually left alone unless unusual problems are present. But for a long time there, the philosophy concerning our tonsils or appendix was, "You don't need these anyway, so why not lose them at your convenience rather than on some dark and stormy night when you and I would just as soon not be bothered?"

A doctor who was vacuuming my sinuses once told me I have a deviated septum. Since then I've discovered we have septa in other spots in the body. One of them is in the brain, in fact. But in spite of all the latest and X-rays, my husband has ordered, they can't find anything much wrong there. Each confirmore wore a carnation, furnished by the Lutheran Church women. Rev. Haskell directed his sermon to the young people and spoke of the privilege they have to continue the work of the church as they confessed their belief in Jesus Christ.

Music for the service was furnished by Ann Haskell and Guilloyle on their guitars, who also sang a duet, "The Lord's Prayer."

Five new members were received into the congregation of St. John. They were Mrs. William Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rhode, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vollmer. It was a most impressive service. May God's Blessing be upon each one.

your week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: June 22 to June 28

ARIES
Mar. 21-Apr. 19
Most members of your sign will take on a mature attitude. Why? First, you'll meet a few irresponsible people. Next, you'll face a few minor reversals.

TAURUS
Apr. 20-May 20
Indecision, on the part of a superior, will cause you to hold back on a few of your own plans. Incidentally, you might be a little unhappy about additional responsibilities.

GEMINI
May 21-June 20
By now you will have been told...you're about as tameable as a fly. Furthermore, you'll get the feeling that someone is about to let you down.

MOONCHILD
June 21-July 22
At this phase in your life, self pity will be a big thing. Incidentally, you'll receive help from an unexpected source. Actually, you'll get more help than you think.

LEO
July 23-Aug. 22
Listen well! An associate, with whom you've become bored, can put your hand on the lever...pull, and you'll hit the jackpot!!!

VIRGO
Aug. 23-Sept. 22
Good news, according to your chart, comes as a fresh flowing breeze. And too, this cosmic cycle will surface your better traits; things should go well.

LIBRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22
"Too many irons on the fire" is indicated by prevailing stellar patterns. Keep a spot open in your schedule for a new and interesting project.

SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21
Whether or not you intend it, you will, in one form or another...improve someone else's finances. Incidentally, you might trigger an emotional explosion among your associates.

SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22-Dec. 21
This week, your "super sensitive feeling" could be a drawback. It seems as though you'll take things too personal—in your job, task or project.

CAPRICORN
Dec. 22-Jan. 19
There's no cause to panic, nonetheless, it's possible that you might find yourself short of cash, in an emergency. So, keep an extra dollar available.

AQUARIUS
Jan. 20-Feb. 18
Strange as it might sound, trivial things that happen during this cycle, occur once in a lifetime. Meaning? You have nothing to learn from the experience.

PISCES
Feb. 19-Mar. 20
Take care, you're in high impulsive gear. You might, without thought of consequence, change your job or residence. Yes! In some situations, even, your mate or similar alliance.

TURN ON'S

The Avalanche — Your Want Ad Paper

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

PICNIC MORNING

Happiness is a picnic morning. Happiness is a day spent with the family. Happiness is walking and talking and sharing the fun and beauty of God's world with those you love.

A picnic is always a happy idea. Somehow, just getting away from the daily routine does wonders. The sound of a cool waterfall, the rustle of a bird on the wing, the warmth of a friendly sun: all of it makes you "come alive" with a new kind of freshness.

There is another place where we all may renew our strength for the times we live in. The atmosphere, fellowship, and inspirational teachings of your church will do much to keep you walking happy. Spend next Sunday morning in church.

For the sake of beauty(shop)

When Betty Ford went to Europe with Gerry, she took her hairdresser with her. Which is a lot classier than a black Ace comb in your hip pocket.

My wife Pat always travels with a wig so, she says, she can swim underwater and still look nice for dinner. She has never been underwater in her life. She never goes into a pool above her toenails. At the ocean in Miami, she spreads her blanket in Georgia and worries about the tide coming in.

So the wig, which travels on a phony head in a wicker basket, is never used. It just takes up space in the car trunk and gives me 1 more bulky item to load and unload and scream about.

"All this dumb thing does is take up space," I screamed.

"Marcia would take up more space," my wife answered. Marcia is her hairdresser. My wife yearns for class, like the First Family has. She wants me to learn how to fall down without getting drunk first.

Pat was suggesting I should be grateful I don't have to rent 2 rooms at the Holiday Inn, one for Marcia and her drier. After a few years, husbands learn to be properly grateful for such windfalls. The first time I complained about the money Pat spent on shoes, she said I should be grateful she wasn't a centipede. Incredibly, I had never looked at the shoe situation that way, even though in high school I went steady with a centipede.

The relationship between a woman and her hairdresser is a fascinating thing. I always said this, even before I saw the movie "Shampoo." In case you missed it, this film stars Warren Beatty as a stud hairdresser who puts the make on all his pretty customers. This doesn't worry me. Even if Marcia were Marvin, I'm certain my wife would never be unfaithful during her noon appointment every Wednesday. It is at this time she learns what's happened in town during the past week.

Every Wednesday evening, after editing that week's newspaper, I go home and Pat tells me the good stuff I didn't publish. I sob in frustration and tear the newspaper into little pieces as she reveals all the news the editor missed.

There is no way my wife would give up her weekly gossip session in favor of mere lust. Sorry about that, Warren.

On extended trips, when my wife complains about the condition of her hair, I often suggest she visit the fancy hairdresser just off the hotel lobby. But no, only Marcia can be trusted with Pat's hair. At noon on Wednesdays, wherever we are, she bows her head toward home — and cups her ear. What are they saying at Marcia's mecca?

There was a morning at home when Pat was so ill she couldn't get out of bed. At noon I made a special trip home to see if she were still breathing. I'd forgotten it was Wednesday. She'd gone to the beauty shop in a coma; she came home in an ambulance.

It is chiseled in granite somewhere that it is against law and nature for a woman to miss a hair appointment. In cases of extreme emergency it is permissible to trade appointments. It usually takes 56 phone calls to locate a woman who will trade an 11 o'clock on Thursday for a noon on Wednesday. Sometimes it is necessary to make multi-cornered trades in which Pat gets Sue's appointment and then trades it to Shirley for Dawn's appointment which Shirley got in exchange for Laura's. It is no wonder Warren Beatty was sometimes surprised at who he woke up next to.

And after all that, she comes home and says: "It'll look a lot better once I comb it out."

Once she combs it out, it looks like it did before she went.

I wonder what that centipede is doing?

Bride Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Laeder, formerly of Grayling, and now of Grand Marais, are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Mitzi Eve Laeder, to Joseph Hoffenberger of Grand Marais. He is the son of Joseph Hoffenberger, Sr. of Curtis.

Plans are being made for an October wedding in Grand Marais.

Alumni News

[By Clara Sorenson]

Have had word from Cheri Smock Sullivan that plans are completed for the 10th reunion of the Class of '65. They will gather at the American Legion Building on August 2, 1975.

We both need addresses for Wave Berry, Michael Hunn, Robert Skolasky and Robert Wyman. Contact Cheri Sullivan, P.O. Box 327, Roscommon, MI. 48653 or the Alumni Office, 403 Michigan Ave. or call 348-7641.

We sympathize with the family and friends and classmates of Lawrence McDonnell, Class of '32.

Board meeting on Wednesday of this week. New members or members - we will have some new ideas to pass on to you. It is nearing the month of July when we asked some of you to turn in Class Listings. Give it an extra effort and get them as complete as possible. We try so hard to keep track of all G.H.S. Alumni - whether you want us to - or not.

Pastors

pleted her second year at Boston University School of Theology in Boston, Massachusetts. In June of 1974 Rev. DeFoe was ordained a Deacon by the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church.

As part of her seminary work in preparation for the parish ministry she served as a part-time student intern pastor at the United Methodist Church in Woburn, Massachusetts this past school year. At Woburn she participated in liturgy and preaching, did home and hospital visitations, and functioned as advisor for the Youth Group. Her major area of academic interest at Boston is Church History. As a reflection of this interest she has done intensive study of the writings of Saint Teresa of Avila, a leading figure of the Catholic Counter-Reformation of the Sixteenth Century. Rev. DeFoe presented a paper on Saint Teresa at the Annual meeting of the American Academy of Religion, New England Region, on April 1 of this year.

In her spare time Rev. DeFoe enjoys reading and sewing.

She will undertake a variety of responsibilities this summer. She will minister at the Jellystone (4 Mile Rd.) and Safari (M-76 and I-75) campgrounds through weekend services of worship, and storyhours for children once or twice weekly. She will also be calling and visiting within the campgrounds on a one-to-one basis. There is also the possibility of establishing some form of ministry to the campground at the State Forest.

Rev. DeFoe will provide hospital visitation for vacationers. She will also be working with youth from both the United and Free Methodist Churches of Grayling. Finally, she will be active in the preparation and execution of an exhibit at the Milltown Festival.

Also participating in the summer resort ministry program will be the Rev. Paul Mergener who will serve the Bear Lake area.

Rev. Paul Mergener is an ordained Minister and has served both United Methodist and Congregational Churches in Western Michigan. He has also been a principal in the Eaton Rapids School system, where presently he is a 6th grade School Teacher. Rev. Mergener is the father of Sally Hoag, co-owner of Fay's Motel.

Rev. Mergener will be preaching each Sunday morning at the Bear Lake Township Hall where interdenominational services are held each Sunday at 11:00 a.m. During the week he will be parish visiting in the Bear Lake area with summer residents.

The Crawford County Summer Action Ministry Program was begun in 1970 by the Michelson Memorial Church and has continued each year with the cooperation of local pastors, and now will become a part of the work of the Crawford County Association of Churches.

New York finds it must pay the piper

New York City is in big financial trouble these days. So is Detroit.

Other major cities apparently are going to be able to make-do, at least for a while.

New York Mayor Abe Beame went on down to Washington to try to get federal aid to haul his city out of its worst financial crisis since Depression days. The city needed a billion dollars to tide it over until June 30, and was facing a projected budget deficit for next fiscal year of almost $650 million.

Washington officials apparently listened politely, but turned aside the request.

"If we do something for one city, we will have to do it for others," said Republican Rep. Barber Conable of upstate New York.

"Every family which makes up a budget has to make painful choices," President Ford wrote to Mayor Beame after their visit.

"As we make these choices at home, so must we also make them in public office, too. We must stop promising more and more services without knowing how we will cover their costs."

At last reports, Mayor Beame and his problems were camped at the state capitol in Albany, hopefully rescue ways will somehow materialize.

Noting New York's plight, Newsweek Magazine in a recent article suggested that "except for Detroit—with its staggering economy and a looming $23 million deficit—other major cities were keeping their budgets fairly well balanced."

Newsweek cited a Congressional survey indicating $8 billion in "painful but effective belt-tightening" had been undertaken by state and local governments this year.

"New York, by comparison, hiked its budget 13.7 percent for fiscal 1975 and wants to boost expenditures another 10.3 percent—to $12.8 billion—in the fiscal year beginning July 1," Newsweek noted.

How did New York City get where it is? Population changes have been affecting all large cities, with dramatic shifts leaving within the cities those citizens described by Newsweek as "Less affluent and more dependent on municipal services."

In addition, jobs are consistently being lost within core cities, and with those lost jobs go lost tax base.

Society itself, as reflected in national programs and changing public priorities in the last dozen years or so, has played a major role. Newsweek recites New York's fiscal chronology like this:

"This was the period...when New Frontier and Great Society philosophies spawned a grab bag of social programs—only partially funded by the federal government. New York now has nearly 1 million people on welfare. It runs 19 public hospitals. It subsidizes college students, subway riders and addicts trying to kick the drug habit."

"Throughout this period, the city was hiring more workers. The municipal work force grew nearly 50 percent between 1963 and 1973 (to about 396,000 jobs) compared with a 37 percent increase for U.S. cities in general. City salaries rose apace, thanks to the growing power of municipal unions."

In Detroit, the story is much the same, with variations on the theme, of course. Detroit's problem is compounded by its heavy reliance for economic health upon the auto industry and the rocky situation, in which that industry has struggled for the past several months.

Detroit Mayor Coleman Young has gone to Washington, too, finding about as much frustration as Mayor Beame discovered. Young's reception prompted him to suggest renaming his city Saigon and then appealing for aid from Washington. He's probably right; Washington likely would tune in Saigon where it would snub Detroit.

We should learn from the peril with which New York and Detroit struggle. Government—including local government—cannot continually provide public services unless the citizens pay for them through taxes.

Sooner or later in one form or another, the chickens of crisis must come home to roost.

Jack Pine's Stump

The Little Cathedral In The Pines needs help. The small shrine to the Virgin Mary, in case you don't know, is located on a small piece of ground half a mile north of the new High School on the east side of old 27. Last year a bunch of people got together and cleaned the place up, planted shrubs and flowers, put in a new walk and installed a brand new sign which hangs from one side of a large cross. Last year's unorganized group never did get going this year. Most were busy with their work or new jobs or incapacitated. So the Shrine was never raked, nor mown, nor were the petunias planted. One notable exception was the work of Doug Neilson and Del Case who re-hung the sign on the cross. During one of the winter storms it was blown off. There is some money available for the petunias - just contact me at the Avalanche, but the rest is up to those who can spare a few minutes, or an hour, off work. There's got to be a few people around the area who "care".

A couple of weeks ago my poor little car became desperately ill and had to be taken to the car hospital where surgical repairs were done and a complete check-up accomplished - all very expensive. The car hadn't had a sick day in its life, but this time it was serious. Why doesn't someone come up with a Blue Cross for nice, friendly cars?

While I hate talking about death, when a good and dear friend passes on, I get a little bit unstrung. This time it was an older man, the father of Mitch who owns and operates the Arrowhead Inn. He was 79 years

Hunters Celebrate 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence "Bud" Hunter were pleasantly surprised on their 40th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 14, when their children presented them with a luau to celebrate the occasion. Highlight of the day was the arrival of ripe pineapples flown in from Honolulu, courtesy of their son and wife, John and Barb Hunter, of Lincoln Park, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Champion, of LaGrange, Ill. and Honolulu.

Present to help celebrate the day were Jackie Lepsy and children, Lisa, David and Chris; Mr. and Mrs. Rick Lepsy and Joshua, the Hunter's first great grandchild; Pat Hunter and family, Dawn, Ronnie, Connie, Brian and Sharina; Larry and Gail Hunter and children, Leanne, Kevin and Kristen; John and Barb Hunter; Jed and Mary Kay Blaauw; Mrs. Johanna Gorman and Joanne Lardieront

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my friends who came to see me while in Mercy Hospital, for the books, plants and gifts. I would also like to thank all the doctors, nurses, and help for being so kind and considerate, and also for the wonderful food they served and the dietician's kindness.

OBITUARIES

Services Monday For Mrs. Beatrice Thayer

Funeral services for Beatrice J. Thayer were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Sorenson Funeral Home. Interment was in Beaver Creek cemetery with Rev. R. C. Puffer officiating.

Beatrice passed away at her home in Grayling on Saturday, June 14th, following an extended illness.

She was born in Carlin in Shiawassee County on April 5, 1917, and had resided in Grayling for 19 years coming here from Manistee. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 106.

Survivors include her husband, Arthur, two sons, Joel, of Manistee, and Jan, of Grayling; four daughters, Linda Sue Parrish, of East Lansing, Julie Houlton, of Grayling, and Sherrill and April Thayer, at home; two brothers, Gerald Austin, of Perry, and Calvin Austin, of Owosso, and 12 grandchildren.

Burialbearers were Donald LaMotte, Tommy LaMotte, Lacey Stephan, Jr., James Crawford, Stanley Haskell, and Gary Haskell.

The family requests that Memorial Donations be sent to the Kidney Foundation.

Services Held For Walter Plekniek, 78

Walter Frank Plekniek, 78, of Grayling, passed away at Mercy Hospital on Wednesday, June 11th. He was born in Poland on January 4, 1897.

He is survived by one son, Mitchell, of Grayling, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, June 14, at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Mt. Clemens and interment at St. Peter's.

The body was at Sorenson's Funeral Home on Wednesday and Thursday with a Wake Service being held Friday at 7:30. He was then taken to Harold Vick Funeral Home in Mt. Clemens.

young, but worked for many years for his son, both at the Arrowhead and at home, where Mitch took good care of him. He was the kinda guy who just couldn't stand being "unbusy". The day he died, he had mowed the yard at Mitch's house. Not by request, but because he wanted to keep busy. Most everyone called him "Pop". "Grampa" or "Gramps". He had a jillion friends in Grayling, and in his broken Polish accent, he communicated damned well with all of us. He was my friend, and I will miss him dearly. I remember one day last summer when Mitch called me and said his Dad had caught a 17 inch brown trout in front of the house and asked if I had a camera to take a picture of "Pop" and his fish. Well, hell, I have five cameras, so I took a Polaroid down and took a whole bunch of pics of Pop and his fish. He couldn't have been happier. I even made him stretch his arm and the fish towards me, which he did. (Make's 'em look a helluva lot bigger.) Previously, I had asked Mitch if he wanted the fish for eating. He told me he did, so, after the pics, I cleaned the fish. Well, when you dress out a trout, you start on the bottom, and, in my case, rip out the front fins. The next day Pop decided he wanted the damn thing mounted (after all, it was the biggest trout he had ever caught), so faithful son Mitch took it to a taxidermist. Pop passed on before he ever saw the "mounting" of his trout. Too bad; he was really proud of his catch.

Speaking of the Arrowhead Inn, I got to register an objection to the idiot who scratched two sets of initials in that copper bar within ten days of opening. People like that should be spanked - they haven't got the intelligence to be thrashed.

Well, I got a lot more to write about, but space limitations force me to cut the rest of this column to just a simple thank you from.....

JACK PINE

CELEBRATE 50th ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rochette were feted on their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a dinner party given by their children at the Holiday Inn on Wednesday, May 21.

The Rochettes were married in Lowell, Mass., on June 10, 1925.

Forty-five guests attended the dinner given by Dennis Rochette, Leo Rochette, Alice Yoder, Rita DeVito of Garden City, Pauline Bradley of Livonia, and Irene Sennett of Garden City.

The Rochettes have 30 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. They have resided in Grayling since 1955.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. Rochette's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rochette and Laurie, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, all of Livonia.

Meeting On Use of Native Lumber

By David D. Olson
County Extension Director
Sawmill owners, builders, and building code inspectors are asking questions on the use of native lumber in home construction. The state building code requires grade stamped lumber for all structural uses.
Small mill owners produce a quality lumber, but generally do not grade the lumber.

A special meeting will be held on Wednesday, June 25th at 7:30 p.m. in the Grayling City Hall to discuss the use of native lumber.

According to David Olson, County Extension Director, Oscoda County, resource people will include a representative of the State Code Commission.
There will also be representatives from the two lumber grading associations.

The objective of the meeting is to provide concerned people with answers to questions on the use of local lumber and grade marking services.

The meeting is being co-sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Cooperative Extension Programs are open to all without regard to race, color, or national origin.

Help Wanted For Petunias

For the past 16 years, Grayling has been made attractive each summer through the efforts of a few people in planting and taking care of petunias along the highway starting at the Cornell Agency on the south end of Grayling, extending through town and ending at the light on Lake Street.

This year, although late, we are endeavoring to continue this tradition. We need your help!

Petunias have been ordered for planting and will arrive within the week. In order to pay for them, donations are again being solicited. These may be mailed to Petunia Fund, Box 470, Grayling, Mich. 49738 or they may be left at the Avalanche office.

Business places will be canvassed starting this week. Let's all get behind this project and help make Grayling beautiful this summer.

If you have any questions concerning this matter or would like to donate some of your time for this project, contact Lois LaGrow at Bill's Laundry and Dry Cleaning, 100 Michigan Ave., Grayling, Mich., phone 348-2121.

We need your help if this project is to be continued.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Langdon of MSU are spending the summer with their parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Robert Chrisman.
Michael is a medical student and is working with Dr. Dosch and Burkley this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Huntington and Mrs. L. W. Huntington of Eaton Rapids visited Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph on graduation weekend, coming for Dick's graduation. Also visiting was another son, Bill Joseph, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Souders spent the weekend in Williamston with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knutilla. They attended the graduation of their granddaughter, Margaret, on Sunday evening. The previous evening, the Knutillas held an Open House celebrating the occasion.

Visiting John Canfield for Father's Day were Mr. and Mrs.
John W. Canfield and children of Grayling, Lyle Canfield and daughter Lynette of Lake City, Dan Canfield and friend, Kathy Steele and children, and Karen available military installations such as Camp Grayling where an entire armored cavalry regiment could be put into the field for productive training at one time. He further indicated that the 107th Armored Cavalry Regiment with supporting elements would be conducting platoon and troop exercises during the two week encampment.

In his welcoming comments for Ohio and Michigan units in Camp Grayling for the 14-28th
June training period, Col. C.E.
Lamoreaux, Task Force Commander from the HHD, Michigan Army National Guard, indicated a hearty welcome to the Ohio units and also the Michigan engineer units moving into camp. Col. Lamoreaux indicated he was looking forward to observing the activities of the Ohio Armored Cavalry Regiment and the construction projects of the engineers.

The intensified engineer construction program will assist local communities and is designed to make Camp Grayling a much better training facility, was noted by Col. Lamoreaux in his comments.

Included in the projects to be completed by the Michigan engineer units are the following:
putting a road into a Boy Scout Camp near West Branch, Michigan, completing additional work on existing ranges and constructing a number of improvements such as barriers and slabs around the camp areas.

Boys' State

Club to attend Wolverine Boys
State this year.

Jim has also participated in many school activities. He has been in four high school musicals, two junior high musicals, one drama club play and also played junior varsity football and basketball and is a member of the varsity tennis team.

American Legion Wolverine Boys' State is a program for the young citizens of America. Its purpose is to develop the responsibility of leadership; to prove the advantages of citizenship; and to promote the art of clean sportsmanship.

Boys' State is not a schoolroom activity, but it is designed as a practical experience in the problems of self-government as operated in Michigan. It is not meant to take the place of Civics or Government courses as taught in high schools of the State. It is structured so that they may put the theories of American Government into actual practice as they are taught in the classroom. This is done through the actual control of the city, county and state offices as organized under the plans of the "Mythical 51st State."

training, ground surveillance and aerial gunnery.

Major General Charles E.
Jones, Commander of the 54th Support Center, says "it's good to be back in Grayling, Michigan, after an absence of four years. We are enjoying the beautiful scenery in this part of our country, and we also appreciate the excellent training facilities for our troops. Camp Grayling is one of the low areas that is able to accommodate three Armored Cavalry squadrons at one time. We are looking forward to an outstanding 1975 training period for our troops."

OUR APOLOGIES

In last week's issue of the Avalanche, we made an error in the spelling of Linda Labos' fiancée's name. It should have read Daniel Martin Starks rather than Daniel Maxin Starks.
